The Boca Raton Concours d'Elegance is the world's largest for charity, and fully benefits the Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County. Founded and directed by Rita & Rick Case of The Rick Case Automotive Group as volunteers who have annually continued their leadership and hands-on involvement over the last 13 years and Honorary Chair Mike Jackson, is all to benefit the Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County and the more than 12,300 at-risk youths it serves. "The entire Concours team is comprised of a group of over 300 volunteers who donate their time to the planning and execution of the event," says Brian Quail, President/CEO of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County. Quail added, "In 2018, the event attracted thousands of attendees and to date has raised more than $10 million for our organization."
