Subject: Cars and Coffee

This is the second Cars & Coffee open house I have attended at The Creative Workshop – an event I would not miss. You have a unique shop, different from any others I have visited. The projects you accept are both unusual and daunting. I am amazed at the research that is required for such projects and the effort you put into such restorations. Such diligence results in projects that are singular and of the highest concourse quality. It was no surprise to see the shop full and busy with projects. Keep up the fine work. Doug A [redacted]
